

Eagle-Orzeł Educational and Cultural Exchange, Inc.

In Collaboration with Marywood University

Sister Benedicta Berendes, IHM Memorial Award:

Marywood students who have been accepted for participation in one of the summer camps organized through the Eagle-Orzeł Educational and Cultural Exchange, Inc. are eligible for financial assistance through the Sister Benedicta Berendes, IHM Memorial Award. Award funds may be used as reimbursement for airfare, program fees, and/or transportation to and from the airport. The application should be composed of an essay that demonstrates an exceptional financial hardship that would either prohibit or make travel to Poland difficult. Students are required to submit receipts and funds will be directly disbursed by the Director of Campus Ministry. Recipients are selected at the beginning of the spring semester each year. Applications must be received no later than February 28, 2020. Please submit the essay and statement of need via email to Sister Catherine Luxner to cluxner@marywood.edu.

ABOUT EAGLE-ORZEŁ: The Eagle-Orzeł Educational and Cultural Exchange, Inc. is a non-profit, 501 (c)(3) organization dedicated to creating and facilitating educational and cultural exchanges between the United States and Poland. Founded by two Polish-American educators, Dr. Mary Kay Pieski and Dr. Teresa G. Wojcik, its mission is grounded in the conviction that interactions between and among American and Polish teachers, artists, and students offer mutually beneficial and enriching experiences. Such encounters hold the promise of enhancing the intercultural sensitivity and global competencies of those involved.

Connecting Americans and Poles through Language and the Arts

Connecting Americans and Poles through Language and the Arts (CAPLA) brings American educators to Poland to teach the English language, American culture, and the Arts to Polish children within a 2-week summer camp format in two towns located near Warsaw, Poland: Otwock and Mińsk Mazowiecki. A third camp focusing on leadership will be organized in Nowy Sacz.

We invite applications from certified teachers or persons with verifiable teaching experience, teacher aides, and peer tutors. American teachers of all subject matter disciplines are encouraged to apply. The American volunteers conduct four classes each morning for small groups of Polish students. Our Polish hosts provide room and board and a complimentary tour of important cultural and historical sites on the weekends. American volunteers cover airfare to Poland.
