* If a student is bringing 6 credits of English and 6 credits of History, they can get credit for the Category Five Elective and a 100-level Elective in the discipline. So, credit for ENGL 160, the Category Three History, the Category Five Elective, and 3 100-level credits of English or History. That way they still get the full 12 credits they would have gotten.

(For current Marywood students seeking to take a course elsewhere, the Category Three Literature must be 300-level or above)
